Quad Cities – The Quad Cities may look like the Old West in late March as the National Congress of Old West Shootists (NCOWS) convention rolls into town. Historical reenactors, cowboy shooters, and Old West enthusiasts of the time period from 1865 to 1899 will wear historical clothing throughout their stay. Events include an Old West Show and Sale with many vendors for period clothing, period firearms (both reproduction and antique), leather, books, period collectibles and much more.

Many interesting Seminars will be held on a variety of Old West topics.

- March 21 2:00pm-3:00pm : Old West Gambling – learn how to play Faro
- March 21 3:30pm-4:30pm : Confederate Sidearms
- March 22 9:30am-10:30am : Tintype Photography – learn about the original process and get your picture taken
- March 22 11:00am-12:00pm : Reloading for the long-range buffalo gun – a how to for shooting enthusiasts
- March 22 2:00pm-3:00pm : History of the Rock Island Arsenal
- March 22 3:30pm-4:30pm : Life and Times of Wild Bill Hickok – bring the kids to see Wild Bill in person talk about his adventures

Public is welcome. You do not have to be a NCOWS member to attend the convention or sale. A one-day pass, payable at the door, is available for $5 which will get you into the show and sale and all the seminars being held that day.
